

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Prince George's Chapter, IAAP
Contact: Patricia Johnson, APW/Education Programs
Patricia.Johnson@gallaudet.edu
202-651-5183

Prince George's Chapter, International Association of Administrative Professionals Elects Officers Greenbelt, MD – May 5, 2011

Ayanna Castro, administrative assistant III at Washington Suburban Sanitary Commission, has been elected president of the Prince George's Chapter of International Association of Administrative Professionals (IAAP) for the next term, beginning July 1, 2011.

Other officers elected include: Judith Falk, CPS/CAP of Catholic University of America as vice president, Tamara Maull of Washington Suburban Sanitary Commission as treasurer; and Nancy Mosely of Alion Science & Technology as secretary.

IAAP is the world's leading association for administrative professionals, providing professional development, career information, education, networking opportunities, and certification programs. The Prince George's Chapter holds monthly educational meetings on the 2nd Tuesday of each month, September – June.

About the Prince George's Chapter

Prince George's Chapter, chartered in June 1980, conducts a variety of professional development programs that are of interest and benefit to its members. It provides a forum for networking with other professionals to exchange experiences, ideas and knowledge. We are committed to the personal and professional growth of members of the Administrative Professional. For more information, visit <http://www.iaap-princegeorgeschapter.org>.

About the International Association of Administrative Professionals

The International Association of Administrative Professionals (IAAP) is the world's largest association for administrative support staff, with more than 550 chapters and approximately 24,000 members and affiliates worldwide. For more information, visit www.iaap-hq.org.